

AUGUSTINE: THE WAY

SONGS OF LOVE, LOSS AND LIBERATION

70th Anniversary Concert

Be a part of history! 1st & 2nd June 2018

Grateful to God and Augustine for our heritage, we will joyfully celebrate in community the present, while our hearts fill with hope for our future.

In May of 2017 Villanova College's Hanrahan Theatre came alive as the story of St. Augustine's colourful life was told through the magic of song and joyous memories!

Following the premiere concert, great feedback was received:

"Fabulous!!"

Associate Professor Janeen Lamb, Australian Catholic University

"I actually really enjoyed it"

Year 12 Villanova student

"I just didn't want it to end, I was totally mesmerised!"

Villanova parent

"Professional, yes, professional"

Adult music teacher

"I wept when Monica died!"

Former staff member

If you loved last year's premiere show, or, if you missed it, it's on again.

We'd love YOU to join the festivities as we celebrate our great College's milestone!
