Aldo Rodriguez Delgado, Cuba's most internationally renowned Classical Guitarist, is coming to Brisbane this May. Villanova College would like to invite you to hear this fine musician in masterclass and concert. Aldo has performed as a soloist and with orchestras from across the world, and has made several recordings throughout his career; two of these recordings have become Cuba's top selling albums of all time.

Aldo has received numerous awards for outstanding contributions to music and culture and was the first Cuban to record the legendary "Concierto de Aranjuez" by Joaquín Rodrigo.

We look forward to you sharing this fine occasion with us!
