

Persuasive Oral Seminar

This seminar is focused on the persuasive oral assignments students are required to present – especially the ones specified under the new curriculum. Students will learn a step-by-step process they can apply to any persuasive oral assignment together with the skills, strategies and techniques that will allow them to excel at all the required criteria.

PROGRAM CONTENT

1. Speech writing
2. Effective preparation
3. Audience analysis
4. Persuasive principles
5. Effective persuasive structure
6. Delivery skills and techniques
7. Methods for confident preparation

PAST PARTICIPANTS SAID

“The course made me feel more confident for all my oral presentations.”

“It was like a big tutorial focused just on persuasive orals.”

“It’s the first time I’ve felt really prepared for speaking to my class.”

“I am sure this will get me a higher mark because now I understand what teachers are really looking for.”

“Now I have the confidence to really deliver my oral, not just standing up and reading my notes.”

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

This program is designed around the most typical persuasive presentations faced by students in years 10 to 12 - meeting the requirements of the curriculum (including the new QCE syllabus).

WHY YOU SHOULD BOOK

Adrian Pauley and Kevin Ryan have been teaching students how to achieve higher marks in their oral assessments for 30 years. Aware of the demands on students’ time, they have distilled the key principles into this seminar.

Students receive a comprehensive workbook that will also serve as a valuable resource for future orals.
