About Villanova College

Villanova College is an independent Catholic school for boys under the care of the Augustinian Order. It was founded in 1948 by five Irish priests on a 10-acre property in Hamilton, with the large onsite residence, called 'Whinstanes', functioning as three classrooms, a chapel and sacristy.

The College moved to its present site in Coorparoo in 1954, where it still sits on the grounds of historic home 'Langlands'. From 40 students to over 1,500, Villanova has continued to grow into the close community we now cherish today.

The Augustinian Order has a long history in education reaching back 750 years, and Villanova has made a love of learning and pursuit of understanding part of its character since day one. This unrelenting pursuit for knowledge and understanding ensures our lives will be based on truth, for it is truth that conquers. This is reflected in the College motto: Vincit Veritas ("Truth Conquers").
