

POSITION DESCRIPTION

Position: First XI Cricket Head Coach

Employment Type: Contract/Temporary

Reports to: Director of Sport

Position Purpose

The First XI Cricket Head Coach at Villanova College is responsible for leading all aspects of the preparation, coaching, development, and management of the First XI Cricket Team. The coach will work closely with the Director of Sport, AIC Sport Coordinators and Assistant Coaches to develop the College Cricket programme. This role is integral to the College Sports Department and contributes significantly to the overall Cricket programme by establishing, maintaining, and modelling the Villanova vision and values for the First XI players.

The First XI Cricket Head Coach at Villanova College is more than a coach - they are the driving force behind a team of young athletes striving for excellence. This role is an opportunity to shape the future of Cricket at Villanova College, fostering a culture of commitment, teamwork, and sportsmanship while developing the skills and talents of our players.

This position is a unique contract opportunity to contribute to our Cricket programme and make a lasting impact on the lives of Villanovan students. We invite those who share our commitment to excellence in sport and education to apply. Please note that this is a contract/temporary position.

We look forward to welcoming our new First XI Cricket Head Coach to the Villanova College community.

Reporting Relationships

The role reports to the Director of Sport and works collaboratively with the AIC Sport Coordinators and Assistant Coaches. The First XI Cricket Head Coach will also have a collaborative relationship with fellow coaches, staff, students, families and other key stakeholders within the Villanova College community.

About Villanova College

Villanova College is an independent Catholic school for boys under the care of the Augustinian Order. It was founded in 1948 by five Irish priests on a 10-acre property in Hamilton, with the large onsite residence, called 'Whinstanes', functioning as three classrooms, a chapel and sacristy.

The College moved to its present site in Coorparoo in 1954, where it still sits on the grounds of historic home 'Langlands'. From 40 students to over 1,500, Villanova has continued to grow into the close community we now cherish today.

The Augustinian Order has a long history in education reaching back 750 years, and Villanova has made a love of learning and pursuit of understanding part of its character since day one. This unrelenting pursuit for knowledge and understanding ensures our lives will be based on truth, for it is truth that conquers. This is reflected in the College motto: Vincit Veritas ("Truth Conquers").

Villanova College prides itself on being an equal opportunity and family-friendly workplace. The College employs over 250 staff across a variety of areas and all staff play a valuable role in supporting the College in making a difference in each young man's life.

Our goal is to facilitate a supportive and collegial work environment to assist staff to produce exceptional outcomes for the young men and for their own professional development and job satisfaction. The College offers a variety of different benefits to staff, including opportunities for professional development, career progression and a wellbeing program. A distinct feature of our Augustinian values is the strong sense of welcome and community that unites staff, parents and students. We treasure open, friendly, and caring relationships between teachers, staff and students, and welcome people of all faiths and denominations to share our story of hope as we strive for excellence in boys' education.

Responsibilities
